

New Zealand ponies, made for the Indian season.

A standing supply of trained New Zealand polo ponies for India, with Ainsley Polo of Pukekohe.

Indian season Best Playing Pony awards have gone to New Zealand Thoroughbreds in recent years, and the Maharaja of Jaipur came to Clevedon in January 2025 to look at what New Zealand breeds. Market Access Partners turns that into a standing supply relationship: ponies made over two to three seasons by Ainsley Polo, shipped for the September season, priced ex farm with everything after it handled.

WHY NEW ZEALAND, AND WHY NOW

- Argentina supplies about 80% of the world's ponies and lands in India at about Rs 12 lakh with transport a third of it. New Zealand Thoroughbreds are already winning the Indian season's pony awards.
- Ainsley ponies are made by the trainers who coach professionals; Kel Ainsley has played the Indian leagues and Ross's saddlery teams won the Indian Polo Challenge Shield in July 2025.
- A breeding programme dedicated to India from spring 2027 gives patrons certainty on numbers, quality and timing each season, rather than buying from the open market.
