

New Zealand, by the people who make it.

Bespoke wine, whisky and mānuka honey journeys for India's premium traveller, hosted by Market Access Partners.

Indian travel companies already sell New Zealand: Queenstown above all, then Auckland, Rotorua, Milford Sound. What they cannot sell today is the source. Market Access Partners hosts your guests at the family wineries, distilleries and apiaries that are ours to open, one winemaker or beekeeper at a time.

HOW A JOURNEY RUNS

Every day

A winery and sommelier morning, a distillery or honey afternoon, a long table evening. Stops of 60 to 90 minutes, framed as provenance not consumption.

Every stop is ours

No partner, no visit: guests only go to producers signed with Market Access Partners, so the welcome is real and the allocation follows them home.

Every night

Park Hyatt Auckland, Craggy Range cottages or Cape Kidnappers, The Rees or Eichardt's in Queenstown; helicopter and ferry transfers where they earn their place.

Your margin

We quote net land rates, you mark up. 20% deposit, balance 45 days out. Groups of 10 to 40; pilot groups February to April 2027.

WHY THIS SELLS IN INDIA

- Tourism New Zealand's own India campaign sells the antidote to filter fatigue: raw landscapes, real people, manaakitanga. A winemaker pouring at the source is exactly that.
- Your guests fly home asking for the wine, the whisky and the honey by name, and those are the producers we ship to India. Value added at both ends of the world.
- Small groups, private lunches, pods of 12 to 16 for tastings, coaches or helicopters as the group size and budget dictate.
